

Education - Study Group

Study Group helps over 40,000 international students fulfil their ambitions every year. They are global leaders in international education, providing the highest quality educational opportunities for students from over 120 countries.

From English language training, high school tuition to university preparation and placement their expertise is focussed on delivering the courses that international students need through a leading set of partnerships with top universities providing on and off-campus preparation courses.

Their policy of meeting student and university needs has led to them becoming industry-leaders in a few short years.

ILG Assured have played a part in the service that Study Group offer since 2002, providing storage and distribution of all course material, prospectus' and accompanying literature.

This is truly a global client using a wide variety of delivery channels to reach a very diverse range of delivery locations throughout Europe, the Far & Middle East, China, Asia and Australasia. We source all packaging, freight, courier and mail services and support the sales activities of up to 20 variable inbound data streams.

The contract requires a real focus towards on time delivery for every consignment and is a very rewarding contract to work on.